MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A). Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

2. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 105 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2002(i) and (m) and Rule 9007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedures and LR 1007(c).

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

3. On January 9, 2015, Ameri-Dream Realty, LLC (the “Debtor”) filed a voluntary bankruptcy pursuant to Chapter 7 of Title 11 of the United States Code [ECF No. 1].³ See Nelson Declaration.

4. On January 9, 2015, Victoria L. Nelson was appointed as the Chapter 7 Trustee in the Debtor’s bankruptcy case [ECF No. 4]. See Nelson Declaration.

5. The Debtor is a real estate brokerage firm that represents clients in the purchase and sale of real property throughout Las Vegas, Nevada. See Nelson Declaration.

6. The Debtor also has a property management division that manages hundreds of rental properties for various landowners and tenants throughout Las Vegas, Nevada.

7. The mailing matrix currently consists of approximately Two Thousand Eight Hundred (2,800) creditors and/or parties in interest. The mailing of any Notice will cost the bankruptcy estate a minimum of approximately One Thousand Three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,350.00) per mailing.

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

8. Bankruptcy Rule 2002 requires that all “parties in interest” must receive, inter alia and, with certain exceptions, notice of (a) proposed uses, sales, or leases of property of the estate;

³ All references to “ECF No.” are to the numbers assigned to the documents filed in the case as they appear on the docket maintained by the clerk of the court.

(b) hearings on approval of compromise or settlements; (c) the hearing on dismissal or conversion of a case to another chapter; (d) hearings on all applications for compensation or reimbursement of expenses (collectively, the “Rule 2002 Matters”).

9. The parties in interest in the above-referenced bankruptcy case currently total approximately Two Thousand Eight Hundred (2,800) parties including unsecured creditors, realtors who were once employed by the Debtor⁴, and homeowners. With this large number of creditors and parties in interest, the Trustee would be required to expend a substantial portion of its assets in copying costs, postage charges which total a minimum of approximately One Thousand Three Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,350.00) per mailing, and other handling expenses associated with large mailings for each Rule 2002 Matter. The Trustee, therefore, seeks to establish modified noticing requirements that will limit the administrative costs of maintaining this Chapter 7 bankruptcy case. It should be noted, however, that the Trustee will be filing a motion to reject the property management agreements⁵ and that notice of the motion to reject the property management agreements will be served on the entire creditor matrix.

IV. BASIS FOR RELIEF

10. The Bankruptcy Rules confer authority upon this Court to regulate notice requirements. Bankruptcy Code section 102(1)(A) defines the phrase “after notice and a hearing” to mean: “[A]fter such notice as is appropriate in the particular circumstances, and such opportunity for a hearing as is appropriate in the particular circumstances” 11 U.S.C. § 102(1)(A).

11. Section 105(d) of the Bankruptcy Code grants the court authority to, “unless inconsistent with another provision of this title or the applicable [Bankruptcy Rules], issue an

⁴ Upon information and belief, the realtors who are no longer employed by the Debtor have sought and obtained employment with other brokers throughout the Las Vegas valley and are administering property management services for many of the home owners who were once serviced by the Debtor.

⁵ There are literally hundreds of property management agreements which the Trustee intends to reject.

1 order ... prescribing such limitations and conditions as the court deems appropriate to ensure that
2 the case is handled expeditiously and economically. 11 U.S.C. § 105(d).

3 12. Additionally, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “the court may
4 issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions
5 of this title. 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

6 13. Bankruptcy Rule 2002(m) provides that a court may “enter orders designating the 7 matters in respect to which, the entity to whom, and the form and manner in which notices shall
8 be sent except s otherwise provided by these rules.”

9 14. The Trustee proposes to establish an Official Service List, a copy of which is 10 attached to the Nelson Declaration as Exhibit “1.” The Official Service List will include the 11 Debtor’s counsel of record, parties in interest who formally request notice by filing a written 12 request for notice with the Clerk of the Court, and other governmental agencies required to 13 receive notice of proceedings under the Bankruptcy Rules and Local Bankruptcy Rules. The 14 parties in interest required to receive notice of proceedings would be limited to those parties
15 included on the Official Service List, those filing a notice of appearance and request for service,
16 and any other persons whose rights or interests are directly affected by any particular proceeding
17 in these cases.

18 15. All parties in interest who are not identified on the Official Service List can 19 receive relevant information concerning the Debtor including notice of proceedings filed in this
20 bankruptcy case via a website containing general information regarding the bankruptcy case
21 including scheduled up-coming hearings which is located at http://nelsonhoumand.com/ameri-
22 dream-realty-llc. A website has also been established which provides the entire court docket in 23 which parties can view the pleadings filed in this bankruptcy case which is located at 24 <http://nelsonhoumand.com/ameri-dream-realty-court-documents>. These websites have been 25 established and are maintained by the Trustee.

26 16. The proceedings with respect to which notice would be limited to the Official
27 Service List would include all proceedings in which notice must be given to all parties in interest
28 including Rule 2002 Matters.

Telephone: (702) 720-3370
Facsimile: (702) 720-3371

17. Although the Official Service List would be presumed to satisfy all noticing obligations with respect to all proceedings, the Trustee proposes to preserve the rights of parties in interest, including the Trustee, to request that the Court enter an order broadening or further limiting the Official Service List if the facts and circumstances with respect to a particular proceeding so warrants.

18. However, in the event the Local Bankruptcy Rules specifically prescribe that notice of a proceeding shall be given to parties in interest that are in number less than the parties on the official Service List, the Trustee proposes to provide notice only to the parties in interest specified in the Local Bankruptcy Rules.

19. In order to establish the Official Service List and to give all significant parties in interest the opportunity to be included on the Official Service List, the Trustee proposes to serve upon all known creditors and parties in interest a notice that they must file a written request to be included on the Official Service List if they desire to receive notice of all the proceedings in this bankruptcy case.

20. The Trustee further requests that the Court approve as to form the Notice of Requirement for Filing Written Request with Court to be Included on Official Service List for Notice of Proceedings (the "Notice") attached as Exhibit "2" to the Nelson Declaration.

21. The establishment of noticing requirements will promote the Trustee's efforts in administering this bankruptcy estate by preserving assets that would otherwise be consumed by unnecessary copying, postage, and related expenses. This relief will benefit the bankruptcy estate and its creditors, and will not prejudice the rights of any party in interest in this bankruptcy case.

22. Orders with respect to noticing relate to the routine administration of a case and may be entered by the Court in its sole discretion on an ex parte basis. Accordingly, the Trustee requests that the Court grant the relief requested without requiring notice.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter an order establishing noticing requirements as set forth above and for such other and further relief as is just and proper.
